Development & Fisheries Department No. NAIS-2008/CR-138/11-A dated 9th May, 2008

2) Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture and Cooperation No. 13011/29/1999/Credit.II/(Pt.) dated 31st July, 2008

Corrigendum - Due to scanty rains and long dry spell, sowing of kharif crops in Maharashtra is delayed and incomplete and the rain in last week of July, 2008 in some part of State resulted in late sowing of kharif crops. In some part of State resowing is there as the crops are weathering. Therefore Government of India was requested to extend the cut-off date upto 31st August, 2008. The Government of India has kindly consented to extend the said date of 31st July, 2008 for submission of insurance proposals by farmers under NAIS upto 16th August, 2008 for the current Kharif crop season 2008 as a special case. However this extension shall be subject to the following conditions :-

- 1) The extension will be applicable only to crops sown during the extended period in the present case, after July 31, 2008.
- 2) The condition of crop on the date of submission of proposal should be normal.
- 3) Banks to accept the proposal of farmers furnishing the area sown certificate alongwith the above confirmation.
- 4) The insurance coverage during extended period would be limited to the value of Threshold Yield i.e. additional coverage (upto the value of 150% of the value of Average Yield) would not be allowed during this period.

This Corrigendum is uploaded on the website of Maharashtra Government and its Unique Code is 20080802111836001.
